

Paired/common-sample placement comparison

Models are fitted separately to identical participant-hours.

The identity line is a concordance reference, not an equivalence test.