

Residual and zero-mass panels combine concurrent activity memberships back to one $1/k$ -weighted participant-hour. The autocorrelation panel retains activity-specific boundary-aware runs; concurrent rows never become lag neighbours. All panels are descriptive model checks; the temporal curves remain exploratory pointwise summaries.