

Core diagnostics for retained biological-sex associations

Two complementary chest models; residual-fitted and descriptive normal Q-Q panels use independent limits. Colours follow the study site convention.

